Michigan Addendum

Social Security Number Privacy Act

It is the policy of Semantic Arts to ensure to the extent practicable the confidentiality of employees' Social Security Numbers in accordance with Michigan law.

The Company will not intentionally do any of the following acts which result in a prohibited disclosure of employees' Social Security Numbers. Violation of this policy will result in discipline up to and including discharge.

1. Publicly display more than four (4) sequential digits of a Social Security Number
2. Use more than four (4) sequential digits of a Social Security Number as a primary account number or use more than 4 sequential digits of a Social Security Number on any identification badge or card, membership card, permit or license, except where permitted by law.
3. Require employees to use or transmit more than four (4) sequential digits of their Social Security Numbers over the internet or on a computer system or network or to gain access to the internet, computer system or network unless the connection is secure or the transmission is encrypted. Similarly, the Company will not require employees to use or transmit more than four (4) sequential digits of their Social Security Numbers to gain access to the internet or a computer system unless the connection is secure, the transmission is encrypted, or a password or other unique personal identification or authentication device is also required.
4. Include more than four (4) sequential digits of Social Security Numbers on the outside of envelopes or packages or visible internal areas.
5. Include more than four (4) sequential digits of Social Security Numbers in documents or information mailed to individuals, except as permitted by law.

The Company limits access to Social Security Numbers to those employees and outside consultants whose job duties require that they use this information in connection with Company business. The individuals who have access to Social Security Numbers are those who work in the following areas:

- Human Resources
- Benefits Administration
- Computer and Information Technology
- Executive Management
- Legal Department
- Individuals who, though not employed by the Company provide legal, tax, benefits, management or other consulting services for the Company.

The Company will properly dispose of documents containing Social Security Numbers by ensuring that all such materials are shredded or otherwise destroyed prior to discarding such information. Data stored in electronic format will be rendered irretrievable before computers are discarded or destroyed.

Victims of Crime Leave

Employees who are a victim or victim's representative, called to serve as a witness in a judicial proceeding, must notify their supervisor as soon as possible.

Employees will not be compensated for time away from work to participate in a court case, but may use available vacation and personal time to cover the period of absence.

Employees testifying as the victim or representative of a victim in a judicial proceeding will not be disciplined for their absence.
