

Employee Handbook –
Minnesota Addendum
January 2026

Minnesota Addendum

Right to Review Personnel Records

Under Minnesota law, active employees have the right to review their personnel record once every six (6) months. Employees who leave Semantic Arts may review their personnel record once every year as long as the Company maintains the personnel record.

To review their personnel record, employees must make a good faith request in writing to Human Resources. Employees may also request a copy of the record at the time they review it. The copy will be made available to the employee at no cost.

The Company will provide employees an opportunity to review their personnel record within seven (7) working days of the written request or within 14 working days of the written request if the personnel record is physically located outside of Minnesota.

What is contained in the personnel record is carefully defined under Minnesota law. The law does not require employee access to information that is not contained in the personnel record.

If employees dispute information contained in their personnel record, they may request that it be removed from the record. However, if the Company does not agree the information should be removed, the employee may submit a written response to the denial (not to exceed five (5) pages).

No action can be taken against employees who appropriately ask to review their personnel records.

If employees are improperly denied their rights as provided by this law, the law provides certain remedies.

This notice only describes some of the employee's rights under the law. For more information, the Minnesota statutes detailing employee rights can be found at Minnesota Statutes. § 181.960 through Minnesota Statutes §181.965. These laws can be found on the internet at <https://www.revisor.mn.gov/pubs/> or in public libraries throughout the state.

Wage Disclosure Protections

Under Minnesota law, an employer may not:

1. require nondisclosure by employees of their wages as a condition of employment;

2. require employees to sign a waiver or other document which purports to deny them the right to disclose their wages; or
3. take any adverse employment action against employees for disclosing their own wages or discussing another employee's wages which have been disclosed voluntarily.

Nonetheless, this policy should not be construed to:

1. create an obligation on Semantic Arts or on employees to disclose wages;
2. permit employees, without the written consent of the Company, to disclose proprietary information, trade secret information or information that is otherwise subject to legal privilege or protected by law;
3. diminish any existing rights under the National Labor Relations Act; or
4. permit employees to disclose wage information of other employees to a competitor of Semantic Arts.

An employer may not retaliate against the employee for asserting rights or remedies set forth in this policy.

Employees may bring a civil action against the Company for a violation of this policy. If a court finds that the Company has violated this policy, the court may order reinstatement, back pay, restoration of lost service credits, if appropriate, and the expungement of any related adverse records of the employee who was the subject of the violation.

Nursing Mothers, Lactating Employees, and Pregnancy Accommodations

Minnesota's Nursing Mothers, Lactating Employees, and Pregnancy Accommodations law, Minn. Stat. § 181.939, gives pregnant and lactating employees certain legal rights.

Pregnant employees have the right to request and receive reasonable accommodations, which may include, but are not limited to, more frequent or longer breaks, seating, limits to heavy lifting, temporary transfer to another position, temporary leave of absence, or modification in work schedule or tasks. The Company will not require employees to take a leave or accept an accommodation.

Lactating employees have the right to reasonable paid break times to express milk at work unless they are expressing milk during a break that is not usually paid, such as a meal break. The Company will provide a clean, private, and secure room that is not a bathroom near the work area that includes access to an electrical outlet for employees to express milk.

The Company will not retaliate or take negative action against a pregnant or lactating employee for exercising their rights under this law.

Effective August 1, 2024, to the extent leave is granted as an accommodation, the Company will maintain coverage under any group insurance policy, group subscriber contract, or health care plan for the employee and any dependents as if the employee was not on leave, provided, however, that the employee must continue to pay any employee share of the cost of the benefits.

Employees who believe their rights have been violated under this law can contact the Minnesota Department of Labor and Industry's Labor Standards Division at dli.laborstandards@state.mn.us or 651-284-5075 for help. Employees also have the right to file a civil lawsuit for relief. For more information about this law, visit dli.mn.gov/newparents.

Crime Victims Leave

Employees who are victims of a violent crime and are subpoenaed or requested by the prosecutor to attend court for the purpose of giving testimony may be granted reasonable time off from work without pay to attend criminal proceedings related to the victim's case. Employees who are a victim's spouse or immediate family member may be granted reasonable time off from work without pay to attend criminal proceedings related to the victim's case.

Employees must give 48 hours' advance notice of the request for time off pursuant to this policy, unless impracticable or an emergency prevents the employee from doing so.

Upon request, the employee must provide verification that supports the employee's reason for being absent from the workplace. All information related to the employee's leave pursuant to this section shall be kept confidential by the Company.

Family Military Leave

Any employee who is the grandparent, parent, legal guardian, sibling, child, grandchild, spouse, fiancé or fiancée of a member of the United States armed forces who has been ordered into active service in support of a war or other national emergency ("mobilized service member") is eligible for an unpaid leave of absence of up to one (1) day per calendar year in order to attend a send-off or homecoming ceremony for the mobilized service member. Employees are asked to give Semantic Arts as much notice of their intent to take this leave as is practicable under the circumstances.

Additionally, any employee who is the parent, child, grandparent, sibling or spouse of a member of the United States armed forces who has been injured or killed while engaged in active service is eligible for an unpaid leave of absence for up to 10 days. The employee must give the Company as much notice of intent to take this leave as is practicable. Any accrued paid time off which is used during this period will run concurrently with leave under this policy and will not extend the length of leave.

Family and Medical Leave for Employers not Covered by the FMLA

Employees in the State of Minnesota may be eligible for pregnancy and parental leave under the Minnesota Pregnancy & Parental Leave Act (MPPLA). All employees are eligible for leave under the MPPLA.

Eligible employees may take up to 12 weeks of unpaid leave for the birth or placement for adoption of a child (but not foster care placement) or for a childbearing employee's own prenatal care or incapacity due to pregnancy, childbirth, or related health conditions. MPPLA leave for the birth or adoption of a child may begin not more than 12 months after the birth or adoption, except that where the child must remain in the hospital longer than the childbearing parent, the leave may not begin more than 12 months after the child leaves the hospital. The length of MPPLA leave will not be reduced by any period of paid or unpaid leave taken for prenatal care medical appointments.

During any period of leave pursuant to the MPPLA, employees may continue any health insurance coverage but employees must continue to pay their share of the cost of coverage.

Eligible employees may utilize any accrued paid time off benefits during an unpaid MPPLA leave. The substitution of paid time for unpaid MPPLA leave time does not extend the length of MPPLA leaves and the paid time will run concurrently with the employee's MPPLA entitlement, except for use related to prenatal care medical appointments as noted above. Receipt of disability benefits, workers' compensation benefits, or other monetary benefits except for use related to prenatal care medical appointments as noted above, does not extend the maximum amount of leave time to which the employee is eligible under the MPPLA.

Eligible employees must provide Human Resources 30 days' notice of leave when the need is foreseeable. When 30 days' notice is not possible, or the approximate timing of the need for leave is not foreseeable, employees must provide Semantic Arts notice of the need for leave as soon as practicable under the facts and circumstances of the particular case. The notice should include the date the leave will commence and the estimated duration of the leave. Employees returning from a leave of absence longer than one (1) month must provide notice of their return from leave to Human Resources at least two (2) weeks in advance.

At the end of MPPLA leave, subject to some exceptions, employees generally have the right to return to the same or equivalent position with equivalent pay, benefits, and other terms.

Domestic Abuse or Harassment Leave

Employees are entitled to reasonable unpaid time off to obtain or attempt to obtain an order of protection and/or other relief from a court related to domestic abuse or harassment.

The employee who is absent from the workplace shall give 48 hours' advance notice to the Company except in cases of imminent danger to the health or safety of the employee or the employee's child, or unless impracticable.

Upon request, the employee must provide verification that supports the employee's reason for being absent from the workplace. All information related to the employee's leave pursuant to this section shall be kept confidential by the Company.

School Conference and Activities Leave

Semantic Arts will provide employees with up to 16 hours of leave during any 12-month period to attend school conferences or school-related activities related to the employee's child (including conferences related to a pre-kindergarten program or child care services), provided the conferences or school-related activities cannot be scheduled during nonwork hours. When leave cannot be scheduled during non-work hours and the need for leave is foreseeable, the employee must provide reasonable prior notice of the leave and make a reasonable effort to schedule the leave so as not to unduly disrupt the Company's operations. Leave under this policy is unpaid. However, the employee may substitute accrued paid time off for leave under this policy.