Oregon Addendum

Discrimination And Non-Harassment (Including Sexual Harassment) Nondisclosure and Nondisparagement Agreements

The Company may not require or coerce employees to enter into a nondisclosure or nondisparagement agreement concerning harassment, discrimination, or sexual assault. A nondisclosure agreement is an agreement wherein a party agrees to not share information with others regarding the subject of the agreement. A nondisparagement agreement is an agreement wherein a party agrees not to criticize or bring negative attention to the other party.

Employees may voluntarily choose to enter into an agreement regarding harassment, discrimination, or sexual assault that contains a nondisclosure agreement, nondisparagement agreement, or an agreement prohibiting the employee from seeking reemployment with the Company, and the employee will have seven (7) days to revoke the agreement after it has been executed.

Time Period to Bring a Legal Claim

Under Oregon law, an individual has five (5) years from the date of an act of unlawful harassment or discrimination to file a claim. This time period applies to acts of unlawful harassment or discrimination occurring on or after September 29, 2020.

Meals and Rest Periods

Rest Breaks

Non-exempt employees who work at least two (2) hours per workday are required to take one (1) 10-minute rest break for every four (4) hours or major part thereof (two (2) hours and one (1) minute through four (4) hours) worked in one (1) work period. For purposes of this policy, "major fraction" means any time greater than two (2) hours. For example, if the employee works more than six (6) hours, but no more than 10 hours in a workday, the employee is required to take two (2) 10-minute rest breaks, one (1) during the first half of the shift and a second rest break during the second half of the shift. If the employee works more than 10 hours but no more than 14 hours in a day, the employee is required to take three (3) 10-minute rest breaks, and so on.

Rest breaks should be taken approximately in the middle of each work period of four (4) hours or major fraction thereof as is feasible. Employees are paid for all rest break periods and do not need to clock out when taking a rest break. Rest breaks may not be added to the usual meal period or deducted from the beginning or end of the work period to reduce the overall length of the total work period. Each rest break must be a separate break meeting the requirements described above. If any work is performed during a rest break, or if the rest break is interrupted for any work-related reason, the employee is entitled to another uninterrupted paid rest break.

Employees are required to take all rest breaks, and employees who refuse to do so will be subject to discipline, up to and including termination.

Meal Periods

Non-exempt employees who work more than six (6) hours in a workday are required to take an unpaid, off-duty, and uninterrupted meal period of at least 30 minutes. No meal period is required if the work period is less than six (6) hours. For employees who work a shift of seven (7) hours or less, the meal break must occur between the second and fifth hours of the shift. For employees who work more than seven (7) hours, the break must take place between the third and sixth hours of the shift. Additional meal periods are required to be taken by employees who work 14 hours or more in a shift as set forth in the chart below. Employees are responsible for scheduling their own meal period but should confirm them with their supervisor(s).

When scheduling meal periods, employees should try to anticipate their workflow and deadlines. During a meal period, employees are relieved of all duties and should not work during this time. When taking a meal period, employees should completely stop working for at least 30 continuous minutes. Employees are prohibited from working "off the clock" during their meal period.

Those employees who use a time clock must clock out for their meal periods. Employees are required to clock back in and promptly return to work at the end of any meal period. Employees who record their time manually must accurately record their meal periods by recording the beginning and end of each work period. Employees are to immediately notify Human Resources if they believe that they are prevented by the nature of their work from taking a timely and/or complete meal period.

No Working During Rest Breaks and Meal Periods

Non-exempt employees are completely relieved of all work duties during their rest breaks and meal periods. All rest breaks and meal periods must be taken outside employees' work areas, such as in a break room. Employees may not leave the premises during rest breaks and meal periods. Employees are not expected to remain "on call" or available to respond to messages, monitor radios, telephones, email, or other devices during meal periods and rest breaks. Employees should not visit or socialize with employees who are working while taking their rest break or meal period. Employees are required to take all mandated breaks. Failure to do so may result in discipline, up to and including termination.

Employees are required to notify Human Resources immediately if they believe they are being pressured or coerced by any supervisor or other employee to forego any portion of a provided rest break or meal period.

Summary Chart

Below is a chart that generally summarizes the number of rest breaks and meal periods provided to employees.

Hours of Work	Rest Breaks	Meal Breaks
2 hours or less	0	0
2 hours 1 min - 5 hours 59 min	1	0

14 hours 1 min - 18 hours	4	2
18 hours 1 min - 21 hours 59 min	5	2
22 hours	5	3
22 hours 1 min - 24 hours	6	3

Bone Marrow Donation Leave

Employees who work 20 or more hours per week are entitled to up to 40 hours of unpaid leave for the purposes of donating bone marrow. Verification of donation and the length of necessary leave may be required by the Company. Reasonable notice of leave must be provided. Employees may use accrued paid time off for this purpose.

Paid Family and Medical Leave

Eligibility Requirements

Eligible Oregon employees may apply for paid family leave, medical leave, or safe leave (collectively "PFML"). Eligibility for PFML and the amount of benefits is determined by statute and the Oregon Employment Department (OED), not the Company. Currently, employees who earned at least $1,000 in wages in the base year and paid program contributions during the base year are eligible. All employees are required to contribute to the Paid Leave Oregon Fund and will be subject to payroll deductions not to exceed the maximum rate established by law.

Entitlement

All eligible employees who meet the statutory contribution requirements are entitled to initiate a claim with the OED and, if the claim is approved, to receive PFML. PFML benefits are available for up to 12 weeks per benefit year (as determined by the OED) for any of the following purposes, in any combination:

1. To care for and bond with a child during the first year after the child's birth or arrival through adoption or foster care placement ("Family Leave");
2. To care for a family member who has a serious health condition ("Family Leave");
3. For employees' own serious health condition ("Medical Leave");
4. For employees who are the victim of domestic violence, harassment, sexual assault, stalking, or bias crime or are the parent or guardian of a minor child or dependent who is a victim of domestic violence, harassment, sexual assault, stalking, or bias crime to seek, on the employee's behalf or on behalf of employee's minor child or dependent, legal, medical, mental health, victim services, or law enforcement assistance or remedies related to domestic violence, harassment, sexual assault, stalking, or bias crime ("Safe Leave"); or
5. Effective January 1, 2025, to effectuate the legal process required for placement of a foster child or the adoption of a child ("Family Leave").

Eligible employees may be eligible for up to two (2) weeks of additional paid leave for a birthing parent (as determined by the OED) for limitations related to pregnancy, childbirth, or a related medical condition, including but not limited to lactation, for a total amount of leave, not to exceed 14 weeks per benefit year.

"Family member" for purposes of this policy includes the employee's spouse or domestic partner, and employee's spouse's or domestic partner's child, parent, sibling, sibling's spouse, grandparent, grandchild, or any individual related by blood or affinity whose close association with the employee is the equivalent of a family relationship.

"Serious health condition" for purposes of this policy means:

1. An illness, injury, impairment, or physical or mental condition that requires inpatient care in a hospital, hospice, or residential medical care facility;
2. An illness, disease, or condition that in the medical judgment of the treating health care provider poses an imminent danger of death, is terminal in prognosis with a reasonable possibility of death in the near future, or requires constant care;
3. Any period of disability due to pregnancy or period of absence for prenatal care; or
4. Any period of absence for the donation of a body part, organ, or tissue, including preoperative or diagnostic services, surgery, post-operative treatment, and recovery.

Benefits under this policy are in addition to any paid sick time available under Oregon law or the Company's sick time, vacation and other paid time off policies. Employees may supplement PFML benefits with accrued paid sick time, a vacation and other paid time off available, but in no event may the employee's wages exceed 100 percent of the "eligible employee's average weekly wage" (as determined by the OED) during the period of leave. The Company reserves the right to determine the order in which the employee uses accrued paid sick time, vacation, or other paid time off when more than one (1) type of accrued leave is available. PFML benefits are not available for any week in which the employee is eligible to receive workers' compensation or unemployment benefits.

Use of PFML

The employee does not need to use this PFML entitlement in one (1) block. In general, PFML benefits may be claimed for leave that is taken in increments equivalent to one (1) workday or one (1) workweek.

Filing Claims with the OED

To submit a claim for benefits, employees should visit paidleave.oregon.gov or request a paper application from the OED. For additional information on the claim process, please visit <https://paidleave.oregon.gov/employees/overview.html>. If the employee's PFML claim is denied, the OED will issue a decision explaining the reasons for the denial. Employees may request reconsideration and/or appeal the OED's decision denying benefits by following the procedures adopted by the OED. The OED is solely responsible for determining if employees are eligible for benefits. The Company will separately consider the employee's application for family medical leave.

Employee Notice to the Company

Employees must provide notice, including an explanation of the need for leave, to Human Resources before commencing a period of PFML. Any health information submitted to the Company for purposes of PFML or any other purpose will be kept confidential in accordance with applicable law.

When the PFML absence is foreseeable, employees must provide written notice at least 30 days before commencing a period of PFML leave. If the reasons for taking PFML are not foreseeable, the employee must provide oral notice within 24 hours of commencing leave and must provide written notice within three (3) days after commencing leave. If the employee is unable to provide oral notice personally, notice may be provided by another responsible party, such as the employee's spouse, neighbor, or coworker. Failure to provide notice as required may result in a reduction of PFML benefits in addition to other discipline, up to and including termination.

Interaction with Other Leave Policies

Leave taken pursuant to PFML will run concurrently with leave taken under other applicable state and federal leave laws, including without limitation the federal Family and Medical Leave Act of 1993, when the leave is for a qualified reason under those laws.

Job Benefits and Protection

Employees taking PFML will retain their benefits and seniority status during the period of leave. During PFML leave, the Company will maintain health coverage under any employment-related health insurance on the same terms and conditions as if the employee had continued to work. The employee must make arrangements with Human Resources prior to taking leave to pay their portion of any applicable health insurance premiums each month.

Any leave taken pursuant to this policy will be considered an excused leave of absence and will not count for purposes of considering the employee's attendance under the Company's absence control policies. Employees who have worked for the Company for at least 90 days before commencing PFML will be returned to the same position they held at the commencement of leave, unless that position was eliminated during the leave. In the event the employee's position is eliminated, the employee will be returned to an available equivalent position. If an equivalent position is not available at the employee's original job site, the Company will offer the employee available positions at alternative job sites located within a 50-mile radius. Otherwise, employees taking PFML are not guaranteed job reinstatement unless they qualify for such reinstatement under federal and/or state leave laws or other applicable laws.

Questions and/or Complaints about PFML Leave

If employees have questions regarding this PFML policy, they should contact Human Resources. For questions about determinations by the OED on leave eligibility, entitlement, and/or benefits, please contact the OED directly. The Company is committed to complying with the PFML and, whenever necessary, shall interpret and apply this policy in a manner consistent with the PFML.

The PFML makes it unlawful for employers to discriminate, retaliate, threaten to retaliate, or interfere with the exercise of any rights under the PFML. In addition, employers may not retaliate or threaten to retaliate against any person who has filed a complaint, has caused a complaint to be filed, has or will participate or testify in proceeding relating to a violation of the PFML, or has given or is about to give information connected to a proceeding relating to a violation of the PFML. If employees believe their PFML rights have been violated, they should contact Human Resources immediately. The Company will investigate any PFML complaints and take prompt and appropriate remedial action to address and/or remedy any PFML violation. Employees also may file PFML complaints with the Department alleging PFML violations.
